

The latest edition of the Practice Guide is your one-stop resource for global business immigration issues and questions.

Global Business Immigration Practice Guide

Alliance of Business Immigration Lawyers
Stephen Yale-Loehr, General Editor

Written and edited by a global team of expert attorney members of the Alliance of Business Immigration Lawyers (ABIL), this comprehensive guide is designed to be used by:

- Human resources professionals and in-house attorneys who need to instruct, understand and liaise with immigration lawyers licensed in other countries
- Business immigration attorneys who regularly work with multinational corporations and their employees and HR professionals, and
- Attorneys interested in expanding their practice to include global business immigration services

The publication provides:

- An overview of the immigration law requirements and procedures for more than 20 countries
- Practical information and tips for obtaining visas, work permits, resident status, naturalization and other nonimmigrant and immigrant pathways to conducting business, investing and working in those countries
- A general overview of the appropriate options for a particular employee
- Information on how an employee can obtain and maintain authorization to work in a target country

What you can expect from this invaluable publication

Each chapter follows a similar format, making it easy to compare practices and procedures from country to country. Useful links to additional resources and forms are included. Collected in the Practice Guide, the expertise of ABIL's attorney members across the globe will serve as an ideal starting point in your research into global business immigration issues.
